

South Palm Beach County COMMUNITY PRIDE SHABBAT

Keshet, a Jewish organization that works for the full equality of LGBTQ+ Jews and their families, in conjunction with many of our community's Jewish organizations, is excited to bring you the Inaugural South Palm Beach County Pride Shabbat! On Transgender Day of Visibility, our community will join together in a musical, communal and pluralistic erev Shabbat service and oneg to celebrate the diverse beauty that is our community. All are welcome for this joyous recognition of b'tzelem eloheim, the divine spark that resides in each of us.

Friday, March 31 | 6:00 pm
