SFCBL - U.S. not-for-profit entity under IRS code section 501(c)(3)

Dear Sponsor,

The South Florida Collegiate Baseball League is proud to support our student athletes who represent colleges and universities from across the country, with fourteen (14) teams playing in Palm Beach, Broward, and Dade Counties. The South Florida Collegiate Baseball League, since starting in 2010, has seen 142 of its players called on Draft Day, while 54 have already made their big-league debut. The SFCBL has become one of the nation's top summer destinations for elite college baseball players.

Assaf Lowengart, Director of the Israel Baseball Americas contacted the SFCBL and recommended that players from the Israel National Baseball Team be given an opportunity to participate in the South Florida Collegiate League this summer providing them a chance to demonstrate their skills before college and professional scouts. The SFCBL President Larry Alintoff and Baseball Commissioner Nick Presto agreed to approve this request.

We invite you to support this partnership with the SFCBL and the Jewish athletes by donating to the SFCBL's Jewish Athletic Scholarship Program. Players from Israel are under difficult times to cover all the financial expenses for the program, which includes; travel and housing. The expense per player is approximately $2,500 dollars to offset the costs. Your donation will help raise funding for these athletes to participate in this rewarding international collegiate program. The SFCBL will acknowledge your support with a Donor Recognition Plaque and will post your support on our website with your permission.

All donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. The SFCBL is exempt from federal taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The SFCBL is in accordance with IRS rules and regulations, donors are advised to verify an organization's 501(c)(3) tax exempt status. Copy of our IRS Affirmation Letter and Tax Certificate is available upon request.

Your help can we provide a level of support for these athletes that are experiencing difficult times in their current situation abroad. Thank you for considering a donation to this very worthy cause. For questions or further information, contact; Bill Hancsak at (561) 722-5754 or email; bill@sfcbl.com.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

Respectfully,

William A. Hancsak
